

Membership in the Canadian Society for Industrial Security provides:

1. A CANADIAN national forum where views, programs, projects, activities, events and research initiatives come together to help create, influence or change security and related legislation, regulations, standards, policy and operating procedures;
2. The opportunity to be actively involved in the development and future of security professionals in CANADA;
3. The opportunity to attain full ACCREDITATION and the designation of Accredited Security Professional (ASP), in Canada;
4. A Canadian national network of security professionals creating a “help-line” for members; an annual Membership Directory on-line.
5. The opportunity to apply, at reduced rates, for Certification and other CSIS professional development programs;
6. An annual opportunity to attend, at reduced rates, a CANADIAN national seminar, bringing together the people, products and information which are directly pertinent to your profession; and
7. Attend, at reduced rates, local chapter meetings where the members in your area gather to discuss issues.
8. A free subscription to Canada’s leading security publications: Canadian Security Magazine and Security Matters.

CODE OF ETHICS:

AS MEMBERS of this Society we share the responsibility for maintaining the integrity and trust of the security profession in discharging this responsibility, therefore, we agree that:

I

We will observe the principles and standards of excellence in the performance of our professional duties.

II

We will support our lawful institutions to the best of our ability.

III

We will be impartial and fair in the discharge of our duties in keeping with ethical practices.

IV

We will observe the precepts of truth and accuracy.

V

We will respect and protect confidential and privileged information.

VI

We will promote programs and systems to raise the standards of the security profession.

VII

We will work toward the achievement of the professional objectives of the Society
